“ If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. ” 2 Chronicles 7:14 KJV

Today as I was preparing to write this article I was taken back to a post on Face book this past week (from someone I know) that said “God never listens to what I say.” (That was the only words on the post.) To my surprise there was only one person who wrote a comment; it said, “Back to church with your _____.”

I had to stop and wonder how many other people feel this way about talking to God (prayer). And my next questions would be, “Why do they feel this way?” and “What kind of relationship do they have with God?” I am not going to try to answer these questions for the person on Face book or judge them either; but I know that God’s Holy Word talks about times when others throughout history have felt the same and then gives us the answer to “Why?” Let’s look at King Solomon, the wisest man and son of David. His father, a man after God’s own heart, had shared the kingdom of God with him yet Solomon made many poor choices in his life that did not include the God of his father, David.

In 2 CHRONICLES 7:12-18 THE MESSAGE BIBLE SAYS, “GOD appeared to Solomon that very night and said, “I accept your prayer; yes, I have chosen this place as a temple for sacrifice, a house of worship. If I ever shut off the supply of rain from the skies or order the locusts to eat the crops or send a plague on my people, and my people, my God-defined people, respond by humbling themselves, praying, seeking my presence, and turning their backs on their wicked lives, I’ll be there ready for you: I’ll listen from heaven, forgive their sins, and restore their land to health. From now on I’m alert day and night to the prayers offered at this place. Believe me, I’ve chosen and sanctified this Temple that you have built: My Name is stamped on it forever; my eyes are on it and my heart in it always. As for you, if you live in my presence as your father David lived, pure in heart and action, living the life I’ve set out for you, attentively obedient to my guidance and judgments, then I’ll back your kingly rule over Israel—make it a sure thing on a sure foundation. The same covenant guarantee I gave to David your father I’m giving to you, namely, ‘You can count on always having a descendant on Israel’s throne.’” (Note: Please go back and read verses 1 thru 22 to get the full picture.)

As I think on these questions concerning myself, I wonder how many times have I left God out of my plans and decisions? Do I think I can handle the problems of living in this world on my own? That I don’t have time to spend reading God’s Word or praying? Or maybe I think that God doesn’t care about me or my problems. Just some things to PRAY about!

And then there was that one comment – “Back to church with your _____.” How would you of answered this comment? Judgmental or with compassion? Would you of shared some wisdom from God’s Holy Word or your own opinion? Whatever our answer is it needs to be in Love and in Truth! ~ Be Blessed, Donette
