“And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD.” 1 Samuel 1:15 KJV

Prayer is communication with God. Prayer for the Christian should be as natural to you spiritually as breathing is to you physically. In fact, prayer is who you are, not just something you do. Read Isaiah 56:7 and you can see what I mean. There the Lord said, "My house will be called a house of prayer." In Old Covenant times, God's house was a building, a temple built in His honor. But today, we're under the New Covenant and God no longer lives in a temple of stone. He inhabits the spirits of born again men and women. As 1 Corinthians 3:16 says, "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" The house of prayer isn't the church building down the block. It isn't some sanctuary somewhere. You are God's house of prayer! ("Getting Honest with God" article on cfaith.com)

Effective praying comes from your heart, not your head. Prayer needs to be a time of getting honest with God. In 1 Samuel, you can find an example of just how wonderfully effective prayer can be when it comes honestly and openly from the depths of your heart. Chapter one tells about Hannah, a woman who was deeply grieved by her inability to bear a child. Adding to her sorrow was the fact that her husband had another wife who could bear children and who provoked Hannah by mocking her barren condition. As a result, Hannah became so distressed that she wept and did not eat. Although Hannah's barrenness was physical, I've seen spiritual barrenness have the same effect on people. I've seen people with a desperation to know God and be fruitful in prayer that surpasses even their hunger for physical food. I've seen them desire so intensely to have the will of God done in their lives it causes them to weep. If you'll read the rest of the story 1 Samuel 1: 10-18, you'll find God not only gave Hannah the son she requested, He gave her five other children as well. How did she get such a remarkable results? Did she obtain them by mechanically applying a formula for answered prayer? Did she get them by working up the best, most wonderful-sounding petition she possibly could? No, she did it by pouring out her heart honestly and openly to God and by believing He heard and answered her prayer just as the priest said He would. When was the last time you poured your heart out to God? I would encourage you to get in God's presence today and "Be BLESSED"! ~ Donette
